PART II—DUTIES AND DRAWBACKS

Excise duty to be levied on certain goods.

X 3. Except as otherwise provided for in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, excise duty shall be levied on any goods specified in the First Schedule, if such goods originate in a Member State of the Mano River Union and are consigned directly to Sierra Leone.

Value of goods to
price.

4. (1) For the purpose of levying excise duty on goods by reference to their value, the value of any such goods shall be taken to be the normal price which shall be the price that subject to subsections (2) and (3) would be paid for the goods when sold in the open market between a seller and buyer independent of each other.

(2) The normal price of any excisable goods shall be determined on the following assumptions—

(a) that such goods are treated as having been delivered;

(b) that any excise duty payable on them shall be excluded from the normal price;

(c) that where excisable goods to be valued are manufactured in accordance with any patented or registered design or under any trade mark the normal price covers the right to use the patent design or trade mark.

(3) A sale in the open market between manufacturer and buyer independent of each other pre-supposes that—

(a) the price is the sole consideration;

- (b) the price is not influenced by any commercial, financial or other relationship, whether by contract or otherwise between the manufacturer or any person associated in business with him and the buyer and any other person associated in business with him, other than that relationship created by the sale of the goods in question;
- (c) no part of the proceeds of the subsequent re-sale, use or disposal of the goods will accrue either directly or indirectly to the manufacturer or any person associated in business with him.

(4) For the purpose of this section, two or more persons shall be deemed to be associated in business with one another if whether directly or indirectly, either of them has any interest in the business or property of the other or both have a common interest in any business or property, or some third person has an interest in the business or property of both of them.

5. (1) The excise duty on any goods except those permitted by law to be delivered free of excise duty shall become due and payable to the Excise Authority— Payment of excise duty.

- (a) at the time of delivery for home consumption from a factory or warehouse; or
- (b) when withdrawn for use by the manufacturer in his factory or from a warehouse other than for purposes under section 7 or for export; or
- (c) at the time of importation from a Member State; or
- (d) as otherwise provided by law.

(2) The Excise Authority may defer the payment of excise duty on such terms as it may allow, if the manufacturer gives such security by bond or otherwise as the Excise Authority may require:

Provided that in such case all excise duties which have become due within any calendar month or any other period that may be prescribed shall be paid to the Excise Authority within twenty-one days of the last day of such month or other prescribed period.

6. (1) All excisable goods made or deposited in a factory or bonded warehouse without payment of excise duty shall upon being delivered therefrom for purpose of consumption or upon Duty to be paid at rate in force on delivery.

being withdrawn for use from the factory or bonded warehouse, be subject to the rates of excise duty in force, at the time they are so delivered or withdrawn for use, except where provision is otherwise made by law.

(2) In the case of goods liable to excise duty on importation for home consumption such goods shall be subject to the rate of excise duty in force at the time of delivery of the entry therefor for clearance of the goods from Customs custody, for home consumption.

No duty payable on certain goods.

7. (1) Subject to such conditions as the Excise Authority may impose, excise duty shall not be payable on any goods—

(a) shipped as stores in a ship or aircraft proceeding to a destination abroad, or

(b) delivered from a factory or warehouse for exportation and duly exported.

(2) Excise duty shall not be payable on any goods other than tobacco and alcoholic beverages, which are shipped as stores on ships registered in a Member State of the E.C. Union and engaged in Intra-Union Trade.

Minister may authorise restriction on deliveries from warehouse and factory.

8. (1) The Minister may authorise the Excise Authority to refuse to allow for any period not exceeding three months the delivery of goods for home consumption from a factory, or a bonded warehouse in quantities exceeding those which may appear to the Excise Authority to be reasonable deliveries in the circumstances.

(2) Where, by reason of the refusal of the Excise Authority to allow the delivery of goods any person shall be prevented from performing any contract in connection with the goods, that person shall be freed and discharged from all actions and proceedings in respect of his failure to perform the contract so far as the failure is due to such reason.

Dispute as to duty payable and drawback allowable.

9. (1) If any dispute arises as to the proper rate or amount of any excise duty payable on any goods, any person liable to pay excise duty on such goods shall deposit with the Excise Authority the excise duty demanded of him and the amount so paid shall be deemed to be the proper excise duty unless the Court, upon application made to it by any person liable to pay excise duty, within three months after the date of such deposit, otherwise decides.

(2) If any dispute arises as to the proper rate or amount of any drawback allowable on any goods the person claiming drawback shall accept from the Excise Authority the drawback allowed by it and the amount so allowed shall be deemed to be the proper drawback unless the Court, upon application by the person claiming drawback within three months after the date of such acceptance otherwise decides.

10. Where any excise duty is imposed, or any exemption, remission, rebate, refund, or drawback is allowed on any excisable goods according to any specified weight, measure, number or quantity, such excise duty, or exemption, remission, rebate, refund, or drawback shall be deemed to apply, in proportion to any greater or lesser weight, measure, number or quantity, as the case may be unless any specific provision to the contrary is contained herein.

11. (1) If any goods ordinarily liable to excise duty at a given rate are allowed by law to be entered or delivered at a lower rate of excise duty or free of excise duty on any special conditions they shall be forfeited if such conditions are not fulfilled.

Goods to be forfeited where special conditions not fulfilled.

(2) Where such goods are so forfeited, any person who knowingly—

- (a) obtains delivery of the goods; or
- (b) disposes of or is involved in the disposal of the goods; or
- (c) uses the goods contrary to the special condition imposed or for some purpose other than that specified by the Excise Authority; or
- (d) acts in any way contrary to the provision of this section, shall pay a penalty in an amount equal to three times the value of the goods or two hundred leones, whichever is the greater.

(3) The importer or person to whom any such goods have been delivered shall on demand produce the goods to any authorised officer or otherwise account for the goods to the satisfaction of the Excise Authority, and if he fails to produce or account for the goods, he shall pay a penalty equal to three times the value of the goods or two hundred leones whichever is the greater.

12. The Minister may—

- (a) remit or authorise the refund in whole or in part of any excise duty payable or paid by any person in any instance if he is satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so;

Minister may remit or authorise refund of excise duty.

- (b) in lieu of making any remission or refund as set out in paragraph (a), direct that there shall be paid to any person to whom the goods in question have been sold or transferred an amount not exceeding that paid thereon or estimated to have been paid thereon as excise duty, if he is satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so;
- (c) consistent with the procedures established under this Act, the Minister may remit or authorise the refund in whole or in part of any excise duty payable or paid in respect of a general class of goods or by any person of a specific class;
- (d) in lieu of making any remission or refund as in paragraph (c) and consistent with the procedure established under this Act, direct that there shall be paid to any person to whom the goods in question have been sold or transferred an amount not exceeding that paid thereon or estimated to have been paid thereon as excise duty.

Duty refunded in error to be repaid.

13. Any excise duty short levied or erroneously refunded to any person who ought to have paid the amount short levied or to whom the refund has erroneously been made shall be paid or refunded on demand.

14. The Minister may—

Minister may waive excise duty.

(1) if any goods liable to excise duty are lost or destroyed—

- (a) before they have been delivered from a factory or bonded warehouse; or;
- (b) in removing them from a factory or bonded warehouse; or
- (c) in the course of delivery for export or for use in stores; or
- (d) in the course of delivery from or receipt into any factory or bonded warehouse; or
- (e) before clearance from official custody at import.

waive any excise duties due on them, if satisfied that they have not been and will not be used or consumed in the State where they have been so lost or destroyed;

Discretionary Power

(2) at the request of the owner or recipient of the goods in question, and subject to such conditions as may seem fit, permit the destruction of the goods and repay or waive payment of the excise duty on—

- (a) any imported goods not yet cleared for the purpose for which they may be entered at importation;
- (b) any warehoused goods or any excisable goods which while in the warehouse or on the licensed premises of a manufacturer, have become spoilt or otherwise unfit for use due to circumstances outside the control of the proprietor.

15. (1) Where any excise duty on goods remains unpaid Authority after the time it has become due, the Excise Authority may may distrain authorise the levying of a distress— for duties.

(a) upon the goods, chattels and effects of the manufacturer of the goods, in respect of which the duty remains unpaid; and

(b) upon all machinery, plant, tools, ships, vehicles, animals, goods and effects used within the Member States in the manufacture, sale or distribution of excisable goods found on any premises or on any land in the use or possession of such manufacturer or of any person on his behalf or in trust for him.

(2) The authority to distrain under this section shall be in the form contained in the Second Schedule and such authority shall be a warrant and authority to distrain for the amount of any excise duties due. Second Schedule.

(3) For the purpose of levying any distress under this section any person expressly authorised in writing under the hand of the Excise Authority may execute any warrant of distress and, if necessary, break open any building or place in the day time for the purpose of levying such distress and may call to his assistance any police officer and it shall be the duty of any police officer when so required to aid and assist in the execution of any warrant of distress and in levying the distress.

(4) The distress so taken may at the cost of its owner be kept for fourteen days, and if the amount due in respect of excise duty and the cost and charges incidental to the distraint are not then paid, it may be sold.

(5) Out of the proceeds of sale there shall be paid first the amount due in respect of excise duties and thereafter the cost and charges incidental to the sale and to the keeping of the distress whereupon any remaining proceeds shall be paid to the owner of the things distrained.

(6) It shall be lawful in exercise of the powers of distress herein conferred for the person to whom such authority is given to distrain upon all goods, chattels and effects belonging to the manufacturer wherever they may be found.

Notice of action other than distress.

16. (1) If any excise duty payable by any person remains unpaid after the time it has become due, whether or not a distraint has been levied, the Excise Authority may, by notice in writing addressed to that person and delivered at his local address, notify him of any action that the Excise Authority may deem appropriate and lawful to take in the circumstances.

(2) If after such notification the person fails to observe any directive that the Excise Authority may have issued he and every person aiding and assisting him shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months.

When duty
payable.

17. (1) Any person who fails to produce to any officer on request any excisable goods manufactured or warehoused by him and not delivered or used in accordance with the provisions prescribed in this Act, shall immediately pay to the Excise Authority the excise duties due on those goods, save in respect of any deficiency shown to the satisfaction of the Excise Authority to be due to evaporation, accidental leakage or any other unavoidable cause and in addition to paying the excise duties on the goods shall incur a penalty equal to three times the value of the goods or two hundred leones, whichever is the greater.

(2) If at any time the quantity of excisable goods found in any factory or bonded warehouse is greater than the quantity which ought according to the books of the manufacturer or warehouse keeper, to be therein, the quantity in excess shall be liable to forfeiture and the manufacturer or warehouse keeper shall incur a penalty equal to the value of the goods found in excess, unless, he explains the excess to the satisfaction of the Excise Authority.

18. The Minister may, subject to the provision prescribed in accordance with applicable legal procedures set out in the Protocol of the Principles and Policies on the Harmonisation of excise legislation, provide that any excise duty paid shall be repaid as drawback on such goods as may be prescribed and on such conditions as may be allowed. Minister may allow drawback.

19. (1) Claims for drawback shall be made in such form and contain such information and be supported by such evidence as the Excise Authority may require. Claims for drawback.

(2) If any person knowingly buys or receives or has in his possession or under his control in any manner or in any place any excisable goods which have been unlawfully removed or abstracted from a factory or bonded warehouse with or without the knowledge and consent of the manufacturer or warehouse keeper, as the case may be, he shall incur a penalty of three times the value of the goods or five hundred leones whichever is the greater.

PART V—OBLIGATIONS OF MANUFACTURERS AND WAREHOUSE KEEPERS

40. (1) No person shall manufacture or commence to manufacture excisable goods unless he first obtains an excise licence to do so.

Manufacturer to obtain licence to manufacture
from Excise Authority.

(2) The application for a licence shall be in such form and contain such particulars as the Excise Authority may direct.

(3) A licence to manufacture excisable goods shall be in such form and contain such particulars as the Excise Authority may direct and shall be issued on payment of a fee of fifty leones.

(4) Every such licence shall expire on the 30th day of June next following the date of issue.

(5) Subject to a right of appeal to the Minister within fifteen days of the date of refusal, the Excise Authority may refuse to issue a licence under this section to any person without assigning a cause for such refusal.

Penalty for manufacturer's failure to obtain licence.

41. If any person manufactures or commences to manufacture any excisable goods without a licence to do so, he shall incur a penalty of not less than one thousand leones and all goods in respect of which any such act is committed and all machinery, equipment, vessels, utensils and materials which in the opinion of the Excise Authority are used for purposes of manufacture or conveyance thereof shall be forfeited.

Licence to apply to one set of premises only and to be displayed on premises.

42. (1) An excise licence for the manufacture of goods shall be granted in respect of one set of premises only, but a licence for the manufacture of excisable goods may be granted to the same person in respect of each of two or more sets of premises.

(2) A licence shall be deemed not to extend to any part of a set of premises not described in the written description and plans required for the issuance of a licence for such premises.

(3) Where the manufacture of excisable goods is carried on at any set of premises by two or more persons in partnership, then, subject to the provisions of any enactment relating to the manufacture of the goods in question, not more than one licence shall be required to be taken out by those persons in respect of such premises in any one licensing year.

(4) Without prejudice to any other requirement as to the production of licences contained in these provisions, if any person who is the holder of any excise licence to manufacture any goods fails to display the licence in a conspicuous place on the premises he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred leones.

Publication of licences granted.

43. (1) The Excise Authority may cause to be published in the Gazette quarterly returns of all licences granted, issued and transferred under the provisions of this Act.

(2) Production of a copy of the Gazette containing any such return shall be prima facie evidence of any fact therein stated as to any licence therein specified.

52. (1) Every manufacturer or bonded warehouse keeper shall Instruments.
keep in his factory or warehouse such reasonable and necessary apparatus and instruments for measuring, weighing and testing any excisable goods and material herefor and any packages, vats or utensils therein as the Excise Authority may require and shall permit any officer to use them for the purpose of measuring, weighing or testing or taking an account of any excisable goods and materials or of any package, vat or utensil in the factory or bonded warehouse.

(2) Any manufacturer or bonded warehouse keeper who contravenes the provisions of this section or uses or causes or allows to be used any false; unjust or insufficient apparatus or instrument or who practises or allows to be practised any art, device or contrivance by which any officer may be hindered or prevented from taking a just and true measure or account, shall for every such offence incur a penalty of not less than five hundred leones and not exceeding one thousand leones and all such false and unjust apparatus and instruments shall be liable to forfeiture.

53. (1) The Excise Authority may station any officer in or Excise

(3) No officer shall be liable to any prosecution action or suit on account of any search made in good faith and in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

60. Any officer, if he considers it necessary in the circumstances, may arrest and detain any person whom he reasonably suspects to be committing, or to have committed or to be or to have been concerned in the commission of, any offence against or any evasion of the provisions of this Act. Power of arrest.

61. (1) Any officer may at all times, by night or by day, enter into any factory or bonded warehouse and gauge, measure and take an account of every still or other vessel, utensil of any kind and of any excisable goods and materials as he shall require. Officer may enter factory or bonded warehouse.

(2) If an officer who has demanded admittance into such factory or bonded warehouse is not immediately admitted, the manufacturer or warehouse keeper shall incur a penalty of five hundred leones.

(3) If the officer is not admitted immediately he or any person acting in his aid or assistance may lawfully at all times, by night or by day, break open by force any of the doors or windows or break through any of the walls of any part of the factory or bonded warehouse where necessary in his opinion to effect entry.

62. (1) Any officer may during working hours enter into any premises made use of by any person selling or offering for sale any excisable goods upon such premises, and take samples of any such excisable goods for which he shall offer to pay. Officer may examine stock of vendor.

(2) If any person selling or offering for sale any excisable goods on any premises fails to aid and assist the officer in measuring and taking an account of all excisable goods in or upon the premises, he shall incur a penalty of fifty leones.

63. (1) Any officer may upon reasonable suspicion stop and examine any ship, aircraft or vehicle to ascertain whether any goods on which the excise duties have not been paid or secured by certificate or otherwise as required by law are contained therein. Stoppage and examination of ship, aircraft or other vehicle.

(2) If no such goods are found, the officer shall not on account of such stoppage and examination be liable to any prosecution, action or suit.

(3) If the person in charge of a ship or aircraft, or the driver of a vehicle, refuses to stop or allow such examination when required by any officer, he shall incur a penalty of five hundred leones.

(4) If the officer finds any such goods, or if he finds any goods which he reasonably supposes ought to be accompanied by a certificate, and the person in charge of the ship, aircraft, or vehicles, does not produce the certificate on demand, the officer may seize the ship, aircraft or vehicle and its contents and may arrest and detain any person found in or accompanying the ship, aircraft or vehicle at the time of the stoppage and take him before the Excise Authority.

(5) If such person fails to satisfy the Excise Authority that the goods were lawfully in his custody or possession for removal he shall incur a penalty equal to three times the value of the goods or two hundred leones whichever is the greater, and the goods shall be forfeited.

PART VII—PENALTIES

penalty.

64. Save as otherwise provided in this Act any person who does any act or makes any omission which constitutes a contravention of any provision of this Act for which no specific punishment or penalty is provided, or is concerned in the doing or making of any such act or omission, or who does any act or makes any omission with intent to facilitate the evasion by himself or by any other person of any provision of this Act, shall incur a penalty of not less than five hundred but not more than one thousand leones.

Penalty
where goods

Penalty for signalling to offender.

69. (1) Any person who with intent to frustrate any officer in the execution of his duty warns, or attempts to warn, or causes to be warned any person engaged in any contravention or attempted contravention of the provisions of this Act, whether such person is within distance to take advantage of the warning or not, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

(2) In any prosecution under this section, the burden of proof that anything done by the defendant was not done with the aforesaid intent shall be upon that defendant.

(3) Any officer whatsoever may prevent any warning being given as aforesaid and may go upon any lands for that being given as aforesaid and may go upon any lands for that purpose without being liable to any prosecution, suit or action for so doing.

Offence of taking bribe or gratuity for or by officer.

70. (1) Any officer who—

- (a) demands or takes any bribe, gratuity, recompense or reward for the neglect or non-performance of his duty; or
- (b) demands or takes any unauthorised fee, perquisite or reward, whether pecuniary or otherwise, directly or indirectly on account of anything relating to his office or employment; or
- (c) delivers up, or agrees to deliver up, or not to seize, anything liable to forfeiture; or
- (d) commits, or conspires or connives with any person for the purpose of committing, any offence against any of the provision of this Act; shall, on proof thereof, to the satisfaction of the Excise Authority be dismissed from his office.

(2) Any officer who commits any of the acts referred to in subsection (1) shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two thousand leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

71. Any person who—

Person offering bribe or reward.

(a) gives, offers, or agrees, to give or procure to be given, any bribe, gratuity, recompense or reward to any officer; or

(b) gives, offers, or agrees, to give any unauthorised fee, perquisite or reward to any officer; or

(c) induces or attempts to induce any officer to connive at any evasion of this Act or otherwise to neglect his duty; shall be liable on conviction to a penalty of one thousand leones.

72. If any person aids or abets any other person in the contravention of any of the provisions of the Excise Laws such person shall be liable to criminal proceedings under the criminal law.

73. The penalty provisions of this Act whether the penalties provided are civil or criminal, shall not apply to acts or omissions done or made by any public officer acting in good faith in the performance or intended performance of his duties.

Public officer to be exempted from legal proceedings.

74. (1) All things including aircraft, ships, and vehicles made use of in the removal or conveyance, of any goods which may be forfeited under this Act, shall be liable to forfeiture.

Aircraft, ships and vehicles as carrier of goods, liable to forfeiture.

(2) An officer may seize anything liable to forfeiture under this Act at any place either upon land or water, and shall forthwith deliver such thing into the care for the Excise Authority.

(3) The forfeiture of an aircraft ship or vehicle shall be deemed to include its tackle, equipment and furniture and the forfeiture of any goods shall be deemed to include the package in which they are found and all its contents, unless the Excise Authority otherwise directs.

(4) Anything which has been seized and forfeited under the provisions of this Act shall be disposed of in such manner as the Excise Authority may direct.

Written
notice of seizure and claim.

75. (1) Where anything liable to forfeiture is seized unless in the possession of or in the presence of the offender, master or owner, the seizing officer shall give written notice of seizure and of the reasons therefor to the master or owner of the things seized, either by delivering such notice to him personally or by letter addressed to him and sent by post to or delivered at his usual or last known address or, in the case of a body corporate, at its registered or principal office.

(2) Where the person to whom notice shall be sent has no address or his address is unknown, notice of any seizure may be given by official publication.

(3) Any person claiming that anything seized as liable to forfeiture is not so liable shall, within thirty days from the date of the notice of seizure or, if no such notice has been given to him or published as aforesaid, within thirty days from the date that the seizure comes to his knowledge, give written notice of his claim to the Excise Authority.

Disposal of seizure.

76. All seizures and forfeitures made under this Act shall be disposed of in such manner as the Excise Authority may direct.

Claim to seized goods to be in the name of owner.

77. (1) No claim under section 75 shall be heard or permitted for the restoration of any thing including any aircraft, ship or other vehicle or goods seized for any cause of forfeiture in any court unless such claim be made by or in the real name of the owner or proprietor thereof, describing his place of residence and occupation; and if such claimant resides in Sierra Leone he shall make oath before the court that the said aircraft, ship or other vehicles or goods were his property at the time of seizure; but if such claimant resides outside Sierra Leone, then oath shall be made by his agent by whom such claim shall be made stating that he has full authority from the real owner and claimant to make the same and that the thing or goods seized were at the time of seizure the bona fide property of the claimant.

(2) On failure to show proof of ownership, the aircraft, ship or other vehicle or goods shall be disposed of as if no claim or appearance had been made; and if such aircraft, ship, vehicle or goods, at the time of the seizure thereof, be the bona fide property of any number of proprietors exceeding five it shall not be necessary for more than two of them to make such claim on the part of themselves and their co-proprietors or to make such oath as aforesaid; and if the aircraft, ship, or other vehicle or the goods, at the time of seizure be the property of a company, the claim may be made on oath by the secretary or a director of such company.

(3) For the purposes of this section "a company" means a company registered in Sierra Leone under the provisions of the Companies Act of Sierra Leone.

Cap. 249

PART VIII—LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

78. All pecuniary penalties not specifically designated fines, and all forfeitures incurred under or imposed by this Act and the liability to forfeiture of any article seized under the authority thereof, and all charges, expenses and duties, and all other sums of money whatsoever payable under this Act, may be sued for, determined, enforced and recovered by suit or other appropriate civil proceedings in a Magistrate's Court, which court is hereby invested with the necessary jurisdiction for the purpose, in the name of the Excise Authority as nominal plaintiff; and all such proceedings shall be deemed to be civil proceedings, and except as otherwise herein provided, the ordinary civil procedure of Sierra Leone shall apply thereto. And the fact that the duties of excise have been secured by bond or otherwise shall not be pleaded or made use of in answer to or in stay of any such proceedings.

Civil proceedings.

79. Whenever any person is adjudged to pay a civil pecuniary penalty or costs in respect of any offence against the Excise Laws, the court may order him in default of payment to be committed to prison for any term not exceeding one year or where the judgment debt, together with costs, does not exceed two hundred leones, then for any term not exceeding six months until the judgment debt is paid; and in such case the amount of costs, if any, awarded to be paid by such person as well as the penalty so adjudged, shall be stated in the judgment and also in the commitment.

Power of court to commit to prison.

80. In all cases where any provision of the Excise Laws is enforceable by fine or imprisonment without the option of a fine such provision shall be enforceable by the ordinary criminal procedure of Sierra Leone applicable thereto.

Criminal proceedings.

81. In civil actions and proceedings at the suit of the Excise Authority under the Excise Laws the same rule as the costs shall be observed as in suits or proceedings between private persons.

Costs.

82. Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Act for the forfeiture of specified pecuniary penalties, or of specified goods, or collection of goods, the Excise Authority if in the exercise of his discretion he shall in any case see fit so to do may—

Power of Excise Authority to sue for lesser forfeiture, or mitigate penalty.

- (a) sue for some lesser forfeiture, whether of pecuniary penalties or of goods or of both; or

(b) consent to judgment for some lesser forfeiture than actually sued for, whether of pecuniary penalties of goods or of both; or

(c) mitigate or remit any penalty or restore anything seized under the Act, at any time prior to the commencement of proceedings in any court against any person for an offence against the Excise Laws for the condemnation of any seizure.

Proceedings to be instituted within seven years.

83. No proceedings civil or criminal shall be instituted under this Act in respect of any act or omission done or made or offence committed except within the period of seven years from the date of such act, omission or offence.

Place of offence.

84. Every offence under this Act shall be deemed to have been committed and every cause of complaint to have arisen either in the place in which it actually was committed or arose or in any place on land where the offender or person prosecuted may be or be brought.

Officer may prosecute.

85. Any officer may conduct any prosecution or other proceedings whether criminal or civil under the Excise Laws in respect of any offence or penalty.

Certificate of probable cause of seizure or act of officer.

86. When in any proceedings relating to the seizure of any ship, aircraft or goods or pursuant to any act done by any officer in the execution or intended execution of his duty under this Act, it shall appear to the court before whom the proceedings are brought that there was probable cause for such seizure or act, the court shall certify on the record that there was such probable cause and in such case the person who made such seizure or performed such act shall not be liable to any action, or other suit or prosecution on account of such seizure or act; and a copy of the certificate verified by the signature of the officer of the court shall at the request of the officer concerned be given to him and the same shall for all purposes be sufficient evidence of such certificate; and in case any action or other suit or prosecution shall be commenced and brought to trial against any person on account of any seizure or act as aforesaid (whether any proceedings have been taken in respect of the same or not, or having been taken the court shall not have certified that there was a probable cause for such seizure or act), wherein a verdict shall be given against the defendant, if the court shall be satisfied that there was probable cause for such seizure or act, then the plaintiff shall recover any thing seized or the value thereof without costs of suit but no conviction shall be recorded against the defendant.

87. Whenever the Excise Authority shall in any case proceed by civil proceedings in any court against any person for any offence under the Excise Laws, and it shall appear to such court that such person is likely to abscond before the case can be heard, such court shall grant a warrant to apprehend and bring such person before the court; and, on his being so brought, shall require him to give by recognisance, or by deposit of money or other valuable property, security to the satisfaction of such court to appear before the court at any time when called upon while the case is pending and until execution or satisfaction of the order or conviction that may be passed against him therein. And the surety or sureties shall undertake in default of such appearance to pay any sum that may be adjudged against such defendant in the case, and in default of such security the court shall commit such person to prison or to the custody of the police;

Where proceedings taken defendant may be arrested.

Provided that every person so committed shall be entitled to be discharged forthwith upon his entering into the required security at any time during the proceedings against him.

88. All moneys and costs recovered by the Excise Authority in proceedings under the Excise Laws shall be paid to the credit of the general revenue.

Moneys to be paid into general revenue.

PART IX—PROOF IN PROCEEDINGS

89. (1) In any proceedings under this Act the proof that the proper duties have been paid in respect of any excisable goods or that any such goods have been lawfully made, imported, removed, delivered or exported or concerning the place whence any goods shall have been brought, or that any goods have been illegally seized shall lie on the defendant or the person claiming anything seized as the case may be.

Onus of proof on defendant in certain cases.

(2) The averment that any goods staved or destroyed were staved or destroyed to prevent seizure shall be deemed sufficient unless the defendant in any such case shall prove the contrary.

90. If in any proceedings under this Act a question arises whether any person is an officer or not, his own evidence thereof shall be deemed sufficient and every such officer shall be deemed a competent witness in any such proceedings notwithstanding that such officer may be entitled to any reward.

Evidence of Officers.

91. (1) In all cases where any penalty the amount of which is to be determined by the value of any goods is incurred under any Excise Law, such value shall, as regards proceedings in any court, be estimated and taken according to the rate and price for which goods of the like kind, but of the best quality upon which the duties of excise shall have been paid, were sold at or about the time of the offence, or according to the rate and price for which the like goods were sold in bond at or about the time of the offence with the duties due thereon added to such rate or price in bond; and no goods shall be deemed to be of less value by reason of any damage or injury they may have sustained in the course of any attempt to destroy or make away with the same by any person offending or endeavouring to offend against the Excise Laws.

(2) A certificate under the hand of the Excise Authority or an officer authorised by him as to the value of such goods shall be accepted by the court as prima facie evidence of the value stated therein.

Government
Analyst's certificate sufficient evidence.

92. In any proceedings under this Act the production of a certificate purporting to be signed by a Government Analyst shall be sufficient evidence of all the matters therein stated unless the contrary is proved.

Admissibility of copies of documents.

93. In case any book or document required by this Act to be used as evidence in any court as to the transaction to which it refers, copies thereof certified by an officer shall be admissible for that purpose, without production of the originals.

Proof of official order.

94. If in any proceedings under this Act it may be necessary to give proof of any order or letter of authority issued by the President, Minister, Excise Authority or any person in the employment of the Government, the order or letter of authority or any letter or instructions referring thereto shall be admitted and taken as sufficient evidence of such order or letter of authority if any such document purports to be signed by any such functionary or shall appear to have been officially printed or issued, unless the contrary is proved.

PART X—SUPPLEMENTARY

Regulations.

95. The Minister may make Regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act and may in regulations prescribe fees, rents or charges to be paid in respect of any matter therein referred to.

Forms.

96. The Excise Authority may from time to time prescribe forms required to be used for the purposes of this Act.

97. The Excise Authority may in any special circumstances permit the removal and delivery of goods in such form and manner as he may direct to meet the exigencies of any case to which the Excise Laws may not be conveniently applicable.

Removal and delivery in special circumstances.

98. The Minister shall restrict the use of any materials used in the manufacture of excisable goods.

Restriction on use of materials.

99. On and after the coming into force of this Act, there shall be substituted in all Acts, Regulations, Orders, Rules, Notices, Announcements or other Legislation or notification of any kind whatsoever, for a reference to the Comptroller of Customs and Excise of a reference to the Excise Authority. Any reference to the Department of Customs and Excise shall remain the same.

Preservation and change of title of office and department in all documents.

100. (1) The Minister may by Order published in the Gazette—

Power of Minister to make Orders varying or amending Excise Tariff

(a) impose with or without qualifications, conditions, limitations or exemptions, excise duties;

(b) amend, suspend, vary or terminate existing excise duties;

(c) amend or vary the tariff description and statistical numbers and units of quantity of the Excise Tariff forming the Schedule to this Act:

Provided that the Minister shall have regard to the convention on the Nomenclature for the classification of goods in Excise Tariff and the Standard International Trade Classification in making any amendment to the Schedule on the Common Excise Tariff and the National Excise Tariff.

(2) Every Order made under this section, shall, within twenty-one days from the first day of the next session of Parliament after its publication or if Parliament is in session within twenty-one days of its publication, be submitted to Parliament and Parliament may by resolution confirm, amend, vary or revoke such Order, and upon publication of such resolution in the Gazette the resolution shall have effect and the said Order shall then expire. If the Order be not submitted within the said twenty-one days to Parliament for confirmation it shall ipso facto expire.

(3) Where an Order under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) or any amendment under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) have the effect of reducing or revoking the Excise duties on any goods, any person by whom such goods are entered shall—

(a) in the case of a reduced duty, pay the reduced duty thereon and in addition shall—

- (i) pay to the Comptroller an amount equal to the difference between the duty payable immediately before the coming into effect of the amendment and the reduced duty payable under the amendment, or
 - (ii) give security to the Comptroller by bond or otherwise for such amount;
- (b) in the case of revoked duty—
- (i) pay to the Comptroller an amount equal to the duty payable immediately before the coming into effect of the amendment, or
 - (ii) give security to the Comptroller by bond or otherwise for such amount.

(4) All payments made under subsection (3) shall be brought into account as excise duties.

101. The Excise Act is hereby repealed:

Repealed
saving
Cap. 286.

Provided that any Regulation, Order, Rule, Notice or matter made, given, published, or prescribed under the repealed Act and in force immediately before the coming into operation of this Act, shall continue to remain in force with such modifications as are necessary to bring them into conformity with this Act, or until otherwise expressly revoked or replaced.
